Commentary

- The Fund NAV at the end of April was $0.81135. Over the past 2 month stock market volatility has returned to below historical levels Our returns have been as guided, with best returns in the more volatile month of February of + 2.2%.
- Throughout the investment cycle the market conditions can be trending, stable or volatile. Our expected returns vary with the stage of the investment cycle. Our distinctive risk managed investing with protection always in place and upside return potential prefers trending and volatile markets as this provides the opportunity to re-set protection levels and lowers the costs.
- During 2018 our investment view remains that stock market volatility will increase - both up and down. Global interest rates are rising, Global interest rates and inflation are rising, valuations remain expensive by historical standards, and Central Banks are adjusting QE policies. However, global growth has accelerated and corporate earnings have been above consensus, with further corporate earning upgrades anticipated globally from US corporate taxation changes.
